FINE AMERICAN COINS AND MEDALS.

Nearly all recent importations from a French cabinet, and generally distinguished by rarity or fine quality. The attention of collectors is particularly called to this fine invoice, containing, as it does, a number of beautiful and rare early American coins, never before offered at auction in the United States.

389 1652. Massachusetts shilling. Small thin planchet. Very fair.

390 (1694) Elephant penny. Obverse same as that of the Carolina piece. Rev. GOD PRESERVE LONDON. Thick, very fine, and warranted original.

391 1702. Silver medal, commemorative of the capture of the Spanish silver fleet off Vigos. Victory crowning a naval trophy. INSENSA GALLOR. CLASSE HISPAN. OPES AMERIC. INTERCEPT. Rev. View of the port and naval engagement. Edge inscribed. Fine and rare. 26.

399 1781 Silver medal. Same series. Engagement between Dutch and English frigates. HOEZEE! DE BRIT. RUIMT ZEE! Proof. 19.

400 1783 Tin peace medal. Louis XVI. seated on throne; before him a female hanging shield with thirteen bars on a column. LIBERTAS AMERICANA. Rev. COMMVNI CONSENSV. Uncirculated; nearly proof. 29.

400*a* Washington double-head cent. Very fine and scarce.

401 1787 Fugio cent. United States. Good.

402 1790 Copper medal by Manly. Bust in high relief of Washington to left. Rev. GENERAL OF THE AMERICAN ARMIES, etc. Very fine original. Scarce. 30.

403 1793 Chain cent. Without dot after legend. A very perfect specimen, much finer than any cent of this type that has been offered for several years. Uncirculated; the hair just touched by friction, and of beautiful light olive color. Very rare. (Monograph of U. S. Cents and Half cents, Plate I, No. 3.)

404 1793 Wreath cent. Sprig with broad leaves under bust. A beautiful specimen, the coarse locks just touched by friction, and the finest of this variety I have seen outside of L. G. Parmelee's cabinet. Very rare. (Monograph, Plate I, No. 4.)

405 1793 Wreath cent. Stem of sprig rises between the 7 and 9 of date, the leaves slender and spreading. Rev. The same as rev. of last number; a combination mentioned neither by Levick and Crosby, nor by Frossard. Unique. A splendid impression, proof surface. (Monog. Obverse No. 8 combined with reverse of No. 4.)

406 1793 Wreath cent. Sprig with stem rising perpendicularly from the 9. Edge inscribed, "One hundred for a dollar." The coarse locks a little worn, but a very fine and desirable cent. Rare. (Monog. No. 9.)

407 1794 Half dollar. Date and legend perfect, head rather weak. Nearly fine for date, rare.

408 1794 Cent. 1793 head. Obverse very fair. Rev. Poor. Rare.

409 1794 Cent. Fallen 4. Very good and scarce.

410 1794 Cent. The Ornate. Fine olive color. Uncir.

411 1794 Half cents. From different dies. All fine and scarce. 3 pieces

412 1794 Token. Liberty and Commerce or N. Y. cent. Reddish olive. Perfectly uncirculated; a beautiful, and in this condition rare cent.

413 1795 Half dollar. Good.

414 1795 Half dime. Uncirculated, but planchet streaked over the head. Rare.

415 1795 Half dime. Broken die. Fine; the eagle on rev. very sharp. Rare.

416 1795 Cent. Thick planchet; lettered edge. Hair a little weak over the temple, otherwise a fine, well centered, uncirculated impression. The obverse reddish, turning to olive—the reverse a fine olive. Very desirable and rare.

417 1795 Half cent. Thin planchet, light olive. Unc., rare.

418 1795 Token. Liberty and Commerce. Companion piece to No. 412. Red; uncirculated.

419 Kentucky cent. Thick planchet, lettered edge. Fine reddish violet color and uncirculated. Rare.

420 1795 Token. Bust of Washington. Rev. Liberty and Security. Fine and scarce. 18.

421 1796 Quarter dollar. Not a strong impression, but everything plain. Rare.

422 1796 Dime. Broken die; fine and scarce.

423 1796 Half dime. Extremely fine or uncirculated. Very rare.

424 1796 Half cent. Legend and date sharp, the head fine. On rev. LF of HALF a little weak, otherwise equal to obverse. The milling very light, the field smooth ; olive color with slight traces of the original red. Very fine, and by far the rarest of the half cents.

425 1796 Castorland token, struck in copper ; edge milled, and hence an original. Fine and scarce. 20.

426 1797 Half dime, 15 stars. Extremely fine impression. Very rare.

427 1797 Cent. Rev. Ten berries to wreath. Splendid sharp impression, broad and deep milling, of fine reddish olive, perfectly uncirculated, and certainly the most perfect cent of this date I have yet seen, not excepting the very fine one which recently brought $15 at auction in New York.

428 1797 Cent. 12 berries to wreath. Brilliant olive, proof surface. Uncirculated. Very rare.

429 1797 Cent. Cheek a little rubbed. Very fine.

430 1798 Cent. Very fine ; brown color.

431 1799 Cent. This specimen is, I think, superior to any lately offered. The date is sharp and well struck, the legend only a trifle weak near border, the head but little rubbed. The reverse also is very perfect for this date, with a large dot for m. m. under E of ONE. Extremely fine for this the rarest of the cents. Probably not three finer known.

432 1800 Dollar. Sharp impression ; very fine and scarce.

433 1800 Dime. Proof surface. Extremely fine impression, barely circulated ; in this condition quite as rare as any of the dimes.

434 1800 Cent. Struck over previous date, the 7 showing under 8. Well struck, both legend and date sharp, which is of rare occurrence in this variety. Dark olive ; extremely fine and rare.

435 1800 Cent. Struck over previous date, the 7 showing under 8, and the 9 under 0. Light brown, and I think quite uncirculated.

436 1802 Cent. Fine ; die broken on edge under date.

437 1802 Cent. Good.

438 1802 Half cent. Hair rubbed over temple, but fine, the date and legend especially well struck.

439 1803 Dime. Very good ; scarce.

440 1803 Cent. Olive color. Sharp, and very fine.

441 1803 Cent. From different dies, the 3 touching bust. Light brown. Uncirculated.

442 1804 Cent. Broken die. An unusually fine cent for this rare date. Very desirable.

443 1805 Quarter dollar. Fine and scarce.

444 1805 Dime. Extremely fine; might be called uncirculated. Very rare in this condition.

445 1805 Dime. Very fair.

446 1806 Half Dollar. Pointed 6, the die cracked through date. Very fine, barely circulated.

447 1806 Quarter dollar. Pointed 6. Proof surface; extremely fine, and scarce.

448 1806 Cent. Extremely fine. In this condition very rare.

449 1807 Half dollar. Head to right. Very fine and scarce.

450 1807 Cent. Perfect die and date. Light olive. Uncirculated. Very rare and desirable.

451 1807 Cent. Perfect die and date. Good.

452 1809 Half dollar. Very nearly uncirculated. Scarce.

453 1809 Cent. Large flat stars. Light brown. Uncirculated and very rare.

454 1810 over '09 Cent. Good.

455 1810 Half cent. Brilliant olive. Uncirculated.

456 1811 Cent. Perfect date. Stars flat, but very fine.

457 1813 Cent. A few stars rounded. Light brown color, sharp impression and uncirculated. Very rare.

458 1814 Dime. Large date. Very fine.

459 1814 Cent. Plain 4. Fine and scarce.

460 1815 Quarter. Rather poor. Scarce.

461 1816 Cent. Perfect die. A few stars weak, but uncir.
